also decided to support each other's candidature for the permanent membership of the UN Security Council. During the visit, it was also decided to institute a bilateral dialogue mechanism on UN reforms and a Joint Working Group on Counter Terrorism.

(d) During the visit, both sides agreed to step up efforts to take India-Japan bilateral economic partnership to a higher level, taking advantage of complementarities in their economies and synergies in trade, investment and hi-tech areas, so that the full potential in this regard could be realized.

Indo-Vietnam friendship

2272. SHRI GIREESH KUMAR SANGHI: Will the Minister of EXTERNALAFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the details of the agreements signed with Vietnam when its Minister for Tourism was here recently; and

(b) what are the areas of interest that were discussed for improving the indo-Vietnam friendship?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI RAO INDERJIT SINGH): (a) No agreement was signed during the visit.

(b) Several areas of mutual interest were discussed including direct air links, exchange of visits by tour operators and travel writers, cooperation in developing marine tourism and IT enabled services.

Russian stand on Indian seat in Security Council

2273. SHRI GIREESH KUMAR SANGHI: Will the Minister of EXTERNALAFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the stand of Russia in regard to India's claim for a seat in the Security Council of the United Nations with veto power; and

(b) the details of the discussion with Russia during its President visit to Delhi?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI RAO INDERJIT SINGH): (a) Russia has expressed its support to India's candidature for a permanent seat in the expanded UN Security Council.

(b) During the visit of President Vladimir Putin, India and Russia exchanged views on a number of bilateral, regional and international issues of mutual concern including on international terrorism. The two sides signed eleven documents covering cooperation in the areas of space, consular issues, banking and energy.

Sending farmers to Kenya

2274. SHRI S.M. LALJAN BASHA: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Indian Embassy in Kenya has received any requests from Andhra Pradesh Government on the subject of sending a large number of farmers-settlers to that country;

(b) if so, the details of the matter as being dealt by our Embassy in Kenya;

(c) whether the Indian Embassy has given any advice on this subject;

(d) if not, whether any other foreign country has sent farmers to kenya recently; and

(e) the details and information as available with the Indian Embassy in Kenya on this subject?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI RAO INDERJIT SINGH): (a) No, Sir. However, it is learnt that a team from the Government of Andhra Pradesh visited kenya in October/November, 2004. The visit was organisedby the Kenya High Commission in New Delhi, who had organised meetings for the visitng team.

(b) Does not arise.

(c) Does not arise.

(d) No reports have come to the notice of the Government indicating that any other foreign country has sent farmers to Kenya recently.

(e) It is understood that Tana and Athi Rivers Development Authority Nairobi, and Kerio Valley Development Authority, Nairobi are discussing with the Andhra Pradesh Government a proposal for developing agricultural